The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. He makes me lie down in green pastures, He leads me by still waters, He restores my soul.
Psalm 23:1-3

In the Atrium this week, we learned about the Good Shepherd. We know that the Jesus is the Good Shepherd, and we are his sheep. We have a beautiful material in the Atrium that exemplifies this lesson and accompanies our Psalm 23 verse. When discussed, the children had the most beautiful responses to the meaning: God gives us a place to sleep and tucks us in (Eloise), He stores love in our hearts (Julianna), He hears us (Isabelle), He puts us back where we belong (Mary), He is always with us, even though we can't see Him (Blake), He died for us so we could make better choices (Benny). Other interpretations included: He helps us learn to read, grow muscles, swim, carries things for us, and helps us love each other.

We have begun celebrating the beginning of Fall with books, discussion of the signs that Fall beginning to arrive, an art project and a special snack of spider oreos! We have harvested the last of the vegetables from our garden (cukes and a tomato) which we had for snack. Fall works are showing up in the classroom! Corn tweezing has been especially popular. The children have been adding to our nature table with Fall items such as cicada exoskeletons and evergreens.

Announcements: There are two unlabeled plants in the classroom, one in a barrel type pot and the other is a small cactus in a clay pot. Please let me know who they belong to.
